We are perfect for first timers wanting to experience pottery.

At the Pottery Studio, we indulge in social pottery making. It is perfect for a beginner, someone returning to clay or people just looking for a fun night out with a difference. During the 2 hours you can expect to make something and underglaze it so that it will have colour in the finished item. We will fire it and add a clear glaze. There is a theme most nights but participants are not required to make the items suggested. If you have a particular thing you wish to make, let us know and we will do our best to help you. Daytimes are less busy so if you are a person that requires lots of attention, think about a 10am or a 1pm workshop.
